FAIR MARKET VALUATION FORM

Form Instructions

When completing the attached form, please follow these guidelines:

- As a Self-Directed account holder, you are responsible for ensuring this form is completed
- The asset value may not be determined by you or any disqualified parties
- The asset value must be determined by an independent, neutral, qualified third party
- Supporting documentation MUST be attached

Examples of Supporting Documentation

Real Estate – Appraisal, broker opinion letter or tax assessors “estimated market value”

Closely Held LLC or LP – Value of each asset in the LLC is required. If your LLC owns real estate, the same standards as listed above apply. If you have other assets, such as bank or brokerage accounts, submit the statement for that account that coordinates with your valuation date. A K-1 is not acceptable as it represents a historical value.

Private Placement – Contact the manager of the private placement and ask how you can obtain a value for your investment. A periodic statement or letter from the manager on company letterhead will suffice, as long as that manager is not yourself or a disqualified person to your IRA.

Notes and Mortgages – Typically, the value of a Note is equal to the outstanding principal balance. You only need to provide an updated valuation for notes if the current value differs from what our records show. It is important that you closely review your account statements to ensure the records appear correct, including proper allocation of principal and interest payments received.

For assets you consider worthless or are in bankruptcy/litigation, provide any documentation you may have at this time. We may contact you regarding additional requirements for updating your account.
